InteLex Corporation’s Past Masters series encompasses the largest collection of full-text electronic editions in philosophy in the world. The series features significant collections in political science, religious studies, education, French and German studies, sociology, philosophy of science, economics, and classics. InteLex acquires and develops definitive editions of the full corpora of the seminal figures in the history of the human sciences, including their unpublished texts, articles, and correspondence. The Past Masters series has opened a new and exciting chapter in the history of scholarly research, and is now being utilized at over 200 research libraries in North America and Europe, and at over 1300 institutions in 46 countries worldwide.

In addition to Past Masters: Collected Works, InteLex publishes The English Letters Collection and The Women Writers Collection. The English Letters Collection consists of the letters or correspondence and in some cases the notebooks, diaries, and memoirs of the most significant figures in the history of English literature, politics, culture, religion and the arts. The Women Writers Collection consists of primary works, letters, journals and notebooks from important women writers in the English language.

InteLex Corporation proudly announces Past Masters Commons, a new offering in our Past Masters series. Past Masters Commons includes historically important texts and translations which have been newly edited for accuracy as well as modern scholarship. Most collections will be offered in XML format. All texts in Past Masters Commons will be offered at no charge to our existing institutional web customers; and new institutional customers will receive all Past Masters Commons titles at no charge.

THE COLLECTED LETTERS OF WILKIE COLLINS

The new digital edition of the collected correspondence of Wilkie Collins incorporates and updates two earlier series by the same editors: the just under 3,000 letters included in the four volumes of The Public Face of Wilkie Collins: The Collected Letters (Pickering & Chatto, 2005); and the over 350 letters gradually added between 2005 and 2017 in the eleven numbers of The Collected Letters of Wilkie Collins: Addenda and Corrigenda issued by the Wilkie Collins Society. The process of updating includes a large number of corrections and revisions to both the letter transcripts and the accompanying editorial material, including in not a few cases changes involving the recipient and/or the dating. This is particularly so with the selection of nearly 600 letters initially published almost twenty years ago in The Letters of Wilkie Collins (2 vols; Macmillan, 1999), edited by William Baker and William M. Clarke. With few exceptions, these appeared in The Public Face only in summary form, but here all appear complete within the sequence, while the transcriptions and annotations alike have now been thoroughly revised.
