InteLex Corporation’s Past Masters series encompasses the largest collection of full-text electronic editions in philosophy in the world. The series features significant collections in political science, religious studies, education, French and German studies, sociology, philosophy of science, economics, and classics. InteLex acquires and develops definitive editions of the full corpora of the seminal figures in the history of the human sciences, including published and unpublished works, articles, essays, reviews, and correspondence. The Past Masters series has opened a new and exciting chapter in the history of scholarly research, and is now being utilized at over 200 research libraries in North America and Europe, and at over 1300 institutions in 46 countries worldwide.

Pickering & Chatto’s continuing series of publications by women writers has a well-deserved reputation both for its unique extent and quality. InteLex is proud to announce electronic publication of this series beginning with a first release of over 200 volumes (often in complete editions) from such authors as Joanna Baillie; Aphra Behn; Elizabeth Barrett Browning; Frances Burney; Maria Edgeworth; Elizabeth Gaskell; Eliza Haywood; Elizabeth Inchbald; Caroline Lamb; Harriet Martineau; Florence Nightingale; Mary Robinson; Mary Shelley; Charlotte Smith; and Mary Wollstonecraft. Pickering & Chatto presents these texts in carefully edited scholarly form with full textual notes.

As with all Past Masters titles, the Pickering & Chatto Women’s Studies Collection titles reproduce definitive print editions in highest quality electronic form. All of the print apparatus is included and is fully searchable. Full-text searching may be made within any single volume, across an entire collection, or across all titles.

Titles within the Pickering & Chatto Women’s Studies Collection can be purchased individually or in any combination. For complete bibliographical information on the Pickering & Chatto Women’s Studies Collection please visit our website at http://www.nlx.com
